Message from Mother Emma

This Sunday we are delighted to be baptising Jasper, Leo and Louis into God's Church at the 9.30 am service, and welcoming their families and friends. Fr Peter Galloway will be preaching for us at the 11.15 am Choral Matins, and in the evening our Voluntary Choir will be singing at Evensong. Everyone is warmly invited to join this choir which gathers once a month, and if you are interested then please arrive at the church at 5 pm, half an hour before the service, to practise the Psalm and Canticles with the organist and then help to lead others in the beautiful Evensong liturgy.

Yesterday was our Summer Garden Party, sponsored by Knight Frank and we were delighted to enjoy time together as a community and raise funds for the work, worship and upkeep of our wonderful church. We are so grateful to all those who donated time and funds to helping us set everything up, and to everyone who volunteered to help on the day. Next week we will share some photographs and further thoughts about the day.

Please may I again draw your attention to the two piano recitals taking place at the church this month - details on the next page. These promise to be uplifting and exciting concerts, and 50% of the funds raised go towards the work of the church. It would be lovely to see you there.

As we continue through the months of Ordinary Time, you will notice that the hangings and vestments in the church are green, reflecting this time of growth in the natural world. Those of us attending the Grow course, in which we reflect on how to draw others into the community of St Mary Abbots, are keen during this time to hear your views, especially on the theme of "Welcome" – one of the three main areas of our current Mission Action Plan. If you have thoughts (or even radical ideas!) about how we might learn to develop and enhance our welcome to newcomers and to those who attend regularly, please do let me know.

Lord God, you draw us by your beauty and transform us by your holiness; let our worship echo all creation's praise and declare your glory to the nations, through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen. [Common Worship Daily Prayer, response to Psalm 96]

With my love and prayers

Mother Emma
